

For Immediate Release

All city sites open Oct. 22, then every day through Nov. 5

Early Voting & Registration at 51 Chicago sites

Early Voting and Registration Services are available for Chicago voters at 51 locations across the city now through Nov. 5.

Every Chicago site will be open Monday through Saturday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., and Sundays from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Starting Oct. 29, all 51 sites will offer weeknight hours.

“We want to emphasize three key points about in-person Early Voting,” said Election Board Chairwoman Marisel A. Hernandez. “First, the first week of Early Voting is always the best for beating the traffic. Lines get longer in the second week. Second, you may register or update your registration when you come to Early Voting. Third, keep it simple: review your sample ballot and make a cheat sheet that you can bring with you to Early Voting or on Election Day.”

Voters who need to a file name or address change, or who need to register for the first time, will need to present two forms of ID, at least one of which shows the voter’s current address. Those who register or update their name or address on their registration will vote during the same visit.

Voters don’t need a reason or excuse, and Chicago voters may use any Early Voting & Registration site in the city, regardless of where they live.

For more information, Chicago voters may visit chicagoelections.com or call 312.269.7900 (tty 312.269.0027 for the hearing impaired). Every Chicago voter also will receive a mailing, which provides the Election Day polling place for that voter’s address and at least one Early Voting site.
