

For Immediate Release – Feb. 26, 2016

Early Voting begins Monday at 51 Chicago sites

Early Voting begins Mon., Feb. 29 at 51 locations in Chicago, and each site also will offer voter registration.

Every site will be open Monday through Saturday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Fourteen of these sites also will be open on Sun., March 6, weeknights March 7 through March 11, Sun., March 13 and Mon., March 14.

Early Voting also will be offered on March 9 through March 11 at Northeastern Illinois University, the University of Illinois at Chicago, and Chicago State University.

Voters don't need a reason or excuse to use Early Voting. Chicago voters may use any early voting site in the city, regardless of where they live.

Voters who need to file a name or address change, or who need to register for the first time, will need to present two forms of ID, at least one of which shows the voter's current address. Voters who register or file a name or address change must be ready to vote during that same visit.

"For voters who have their minds made up, early voting means the flexibility to cast your ballot when and where you want without worrying about a scheduling conflict on Election Day," said Election Board Chairwoman Marisel A. Hernandez.

For more information, Chicago voters may visit chicagoelections.com or call 312.269.7900 (tty 312.269.0027 for the hearing impaired). Every Chicago voter also will receive a mailing, which provides the Election Day polling place for that voter's address and at least one Early Voting site.
