CODE OF CONDUCT FOR JUDGES OF ELECTION

As a Judge of Election, I hereby promise to uphold the Code of Conduct by:

- Being punctual and arriving to the polling place on time so that it is set up and fully functional by the opening of polls at 6:00 am;
- Respecting each and every Voter with consistent, courteous assistance and instructions during the hours that the Polling Place is scheduled to be open for voting;
- Working in a courteous and cooperative spirit with my fellow judges of election and any poll worker assigned to my polling place by the Chicago Board of Election Commissioners;
- Honoring each Voter's secret ballot and making every effort to avoid viewing the Voter's ballot choices, even if the ballot is rejected by the ballot scanner;
- Using the electronic poll book and other paper records of Voter names and information only for the purposes of serving the Voters who arrive in the polling place where I serve, and never using the electronic poll book or other listings for random searches or for personal use;
- Utilizing personal information only as needed to process a Voter's ballot application and never exposing that information outside the polling place;
- Following all rules governing Election Day as instructed in the Judge of Election Handbook or the electronic poll book; and,
- Relying on the Judge of Election Handbook and/or directions from Election Central if there are questions or conflicts over how to proceed.

I understand that intentional violation of this Code of Conduct may result in removal, loss of pay or other actions as prescribed by State and Federal election codes and privacy laws.
