Programmer (.Net Developer)

Position Summary

Join the Chicago Board of Elections as a Programmer (.Net Developer)! This full-time non-exempt role works under the direction of the IT Division Manager, participates in all phases of the Software Development Life Cycle (SDLC), and includes requirements, design, implementation/coding, testing, deployment, and maintenance of new applications.

Salary Range: $70,000 - $80,000

Essential Duties/Responsibilities:
- Maintain and support previously developed in-house applications.
- Provide datasets and reports for various end-users, and departments as well as management reporting.
- Assist the IT Manager in any upgrade or migration of Application Development software, applications, and data.
- Work with Board contractors, as directed by the IT Manager, for application and/or data integration.
- Maintain the Board's website.
- Other duties as assigned.

Qualifications:
- Minimum BA degree from an accredited college or university.
- 4 years experience with .NET application developer with a strong background in application development using technologies such as ASP.NET, C#, XML, HTML, JavaScript, Microsoft SQL server, and Microsoft Visual Studio.
- Possess solid troubleshooting skills
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills.
- Proficient with Microsoft Office Suite or related software.
- Availability to work extended hours and weekends during the election cycle.
- City of Chicago residency is required.
- Compliance with the Board's mandatory COVID vaccination policy is required.

Please note skills may be tested as part of the interview process

Applications for this position will be received via email and must include a résumé and cover letter. E-mail hr@chicagoelections.gov and include in the subject line*:* Programmer/Your Name.

Equal Opportunity Employer