FINDINGS AND DECISION

The duly constituted Electoral Board, consisting of the Board of the Election Commissioners for the City of Chicago, Commissioners Marisel A. Hernandez, June A. Brown, and Laura Kotelman[1], organized by law in response to a Call issued by Marisel A. Hernandez, Chair of said Electoral Board, for the purpose of hearing and passing upon objections ("Objections") of TRACEY E. BRADY ("Objector") to the nomination papers ("Nomination Papers") of KINA COLLINS, candidate for the Democratic Party nomination for the office of Representative in Congress, 7th Congressional District in the State of Illinois ("Candidate") at the General Primary Election to be held on Tuesday, March 17, 2026, having convened on November 19, 2025, at 9:30 a.m., in Room 800, 69 West Washington Street, Chicago, Illinois, and having heard and determined the Objections to the Nomination Papers in the above-entitled matter, finds that:

1. Objections to the Nomination Papers of the Candidate were duly and timely filed.

[1] Commissioner Kotelman was sworn into office and joined the Board on November 26, 2025.

2. The Electoral Board was constituted according to the laws of the State of Illinois.

3. A Call to the hearing on said Objections was duly issued by the Chair of the Electoral Board and served upon the members of the Electoral Board, the Objector, and the Candidate, by registered or certified mail and by Sheriff's service, as provided by statute, or statutory service was waived and service by email was authorized.

4. A public hearing held on these Objections commenced on November 19, 2025, and was continued from time to time. The Electoral Board assigned this matter to Hearing Officer Mathias Delort for further hearings and proceedings.

5. The Objector and the Candidate were directed by the Electoral Board's Call served upon them to appear before the Hearing Officer on the date and at the time designated in the Hearing Schedule. Appearances were filed by or on behalf of the following persons: the Objector, TRACEY E. BRADY, by Attorney ED MULLEN; and the Candidate, KINA COLLINS, by Attorney ANDREW FINKO.

6. The Hearing Officer ordered that an examination of the voter registration records be conducted by clerks and agents under the Board's direction and supervision, in accordance with the laws of Illinois and the rules of the Board.

7. The Hearing Officer directed all parties to appear and be present, either personally and/or by their authorized representatives during this records examination.

8. The Candidate and/or her duly authorized representative was present during the examination of the registration records or waived their right to do so.

9. The Objector and/or her duly authorized representative was present during the examination of the registration records or waived their right to do so.

10. The examination of the registration records was completed and the Electoral Board hereby adopts and incorporates by reference the results of the records examination conducted by its clerks and agents. The written report of the result of the registration records examination is contained in the Board's file in this case and a copy has been provided or made available to the parties.

11. The results of the records examination indicate that:

A. The minimum number of valid signatures required by law for placement on the ballot for the office in question is 1,164.

B. The number of purportedly valid signatures appearing on the nominating petition filed by the Candidate total 2,385.

C. The number of signatures deemed invalid because of objections sustained as a result of the records examination total 873.

D. The remaining number of signatures deemed valid as a result of the records examination total 1,512.

12. The Electoral Board finds that the number of valid signatures appearing on the Candidate's nominating petition following completion of the records examination exceeds the minimum number of valid signatures required by law to be placed upon the ballot as a candidate for the nomination of the Democratic Party to the office of Representative in Congress of the 7th Congressional District, State of Illinois.

13. Candidate filed a motion pursuant to Rule 8 of the Board's Rules of Procedure ("Rule 8 Motion"). However, the Objector did not present further argument and rested on the results of the records examination, which rendered the Candidate's Rule 8 Motion moot.

14. The Hearing Officer has tendered to the Electoral Board a report and recommended decision. Based upon the evidence presented, the Hearing Officer found that the Candidate's Nomination Papers contained 1,512 valid signatures, which exceeds the minimum number of valid signatures required by law to be placed upon the ballot as a candidate of the Democratic Party for the office of Representative in Congress of the 7th Congressional District, State of Illinois, and that the Candidate's Nomination Papers should be found valid.

15. The Electoral Board, having considered the evidence and arguments tendered by the parties and the Hearing Officer's report of recommended findings and conclusions of law, hereby adopts the Hearing Officer's recommended findings and conclusions of law and incorporates them herein.

16. For the reasons stated above, the Electoral Board finds that the Candidate has a sufficient number of valid signatures on her nominating petitions and that the Nomination Papers of KINA COLLINS are, therefore, valid.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the Objections of TRACEY E. BRADY to the Nomination Papers of KINA COLLINS, candidate for nomination of the Democratic Party for the office of Representative in Congress of the 7th Congressional District, State of Illinois, are hereby OVERRULED, said Nomination Papers are hereby declared VALID, and the name of KINA COLLINS, candidate for nomination, SHALL be printed on the official ballot for the General Primary Election to be held on Tuesday, March 17, 2026.
